

The week ahead...

Summer 1 Week 3: w/c 1st May 2023

Good morning,

Another week down and a little run of bank holidays now lie ahead of us. Let's hope the weather improves as we move into May as I think we're all pretty fed up of the gloomy weather that we've endured this week.

Next week is a shorter week due to the bank holiday and we'll finish with the King's Coronation Celebrations on Friday. Please remember to remind your children about making a crown for the celebrations (a perfect bank holiday task) and to wear red, white and blue. Hopefully, the weather will be good so we'll all enjoy a picnic in the playground, a bit like we did for the jubilee celebrations. Have a fantastic weekend!

Star of the Week

As the children are only in for 2.5 days next week, there won't be a celebration assembly on Friday morning. Take this as an opportunity to teach children about the King's Coronation. There are plenty of resources online to support this, particularly through Twinkl and Rachel has also sent some information via email today.

The King's Coronation Celebrations

On Friday 5th May, we will celebrate the King's Coronation in school. We have already invited the children to make their own crown out of recycled and natural materials and they will wear these during the day. It would be lovely if you could do the same!

We're hoping the weather will be good so that we can have a large picnic in the playground to mark the event and the dress theme will be Red, White and Blue for the day.

Staff Meeting

The staff meeting on Wednesday is focused on 'ONLINE SAFETY' and will take place in Paul's office.

Song of the week

April certainly seems to be the month for birthdays and, after enjoying all of the birthday cakes from last week, Ricky gets to enjoy and celebrate his birthday over the bank holiday weekend. We hope you have a fantastic day and enjoy the extended celebrations!

Please enjoy Ricky's choice of song, 'Brothers in Arms by Dire Straits'.
