

The week ahead...

Summer 1 Week 6: w/c 22nd May 2023

Good morning,

The end is near and the sun has finally come out and brought warmth with it too... it finally feels like the summer is approaching. It's been a busy half term with lots of bank holidays thrown in, so a 5 day working week has been a bit of a shock to us all. Next week is another busy week as we approach the whitsun half term. Please note the newsletter and SEND reminders for this week along with Becky's request for RE books on Tuesday. Good luck to the final round of children completing their KSI SATs next week. Well done to Rachel and Emma for working through these tests with the children. A well earned rest is just round the corner.

As this is the final week of half term, we won't have Stars of the Week. Instead, the focus will be Class Wish and Catholic Virtues.

Catholic Virtues and Class Wish

Please be reminded that you need to nominate your Catholic Virtues (Curious and Active) and Class Wish luminaries, ready for the celebration assembly on Friday. Please could you send the names of these children to Paul by Wednesday so that he can organise the certificates and invite parents in. Thank you.

Staff Meeting & SEND Targets

There won't be a staff meeting on Wednesday as both Paul and myself are not in school due to DSL and History meetings. This would be a good opportunity to update your SEND targets (see Rachel's email).

Readers in Assembly

Thank you to everyone who has volunteered to read in assembly. The readers for the remainder of this half term are as follows:

Week 6 (26th May): Alison

Alice will be looking for volunteers for the next half term so please let her know if you are able to do this.

Song of the week

Looking back through the staff favourite songs, I realised we missed Lorna's birthday in the Easter Holidays as the songs for the final week were about the blushing brides. So, this week's song is Lorna's choice with a song title that I think we'll all feel next Friday. Enjoy 'On top of the world' by the Imagine Dragons and have a great weekend.

Newsletter

Yes, it's that time of the half term again when we need to write our pieces for the newsletter. Please could they be saved, along with any photos, by Monday morning so Paul can begin working on the newsletter for Friday. Thank you!

Have a fabulous weekend!
Paul, Alison and Rachel
