

The week ahead...

Summer 2 Week 1: w/c 5th June 2023

Good morning,

Half term is here, the weather looks good and the children leave at 1pm – could you ask for a better way to finish the Friday?

It's hard to believe we're finishing the penultimate half term. Well done to Year 6 and Year 2 for completing their SATs. Next half term, Year 1 and Year 4 begin their phonics screening checks and timestable checks so we'll be thinking of them.

Thank you for all your continued hard work this half term. It's really appreciated and it really does make our team special. We hope you have a wonderful break and get to enjoy the sunshine!

Readers in Assembly

Please could you sign up to Alice's reading rota for Summer 2. At the moment, nobody has volunteered for Week 1.

Song of the week

The sun is out which has made us all feel good this week. They say the sun shines on the righteous and this is very apt for our wonderful Caroline who celebrates her birthday today! Caroline always radiates sunshine so it is only right that the sun should be shining brightly today. Caroline's song had to come from Queen so enjoy Bohemian Rhapsody! Have a great birthday Caroline!

Journey of Faith & Impact Records

Please don't forget to complete your Journey of Faith slides for Summer 1. Could you ensure you do it on the new format and not use last years slides please. In terms of Impact Records, please add to these as you go along as the last date for them to be completed is Week 4 of next half term. Please look at your action plans to see what leadership should be done and don't leave it until the last minute! Thank you!

Have a fabulous half term!
 Paul, Alison and Rachel
