

The week ahead...

Autumn 2 Week 6: w/c 5th December 2022

Good morning,

Well done for achieving another week but, my goodness, it's scary to think we've only got 2 weeks left... and still so much to do! Next week is assessment week, coupled with foundation subject teaching and performance rehearsals. In an ideal world, the foundation subjects will be taught according to the timetable but the reality will probably be very different. Just try to get as many taught as possible given the constraints of performances. Friday will be an own clothes day for SVP and we're asking children to bring in tinned and dried foods, along with chocolates and biscuits as treats for Christmas. They were so grateful for the donations from before and said, for once, they didn't run out of food. Please share this with the children as it is wonderful to hear the difference we made to our local community!

Mass: Y2 class mass

Year 2 will attend their class mass this week. The following week will be a whole school mass with the teachers leading the readings and bidding prayers.

Staff Meeting Focus:

There will be a quick, 10 minute meeting at 8am on Monday morning in Paul's office. This is to go through the data inputting for the assessments during the week. There won't be a meeting on Wednesday so that we can mark assessments.

Song of the week

I'm turning to Nicky this week for song inspiration as it's a little too early for a Christmas Song! The title of the song looks like it could have multiple answers, depending on how you're feeling, so enjoy 'You gotta be' by Des'ree. Personally, I think 'You gotta be... mad to work in a primary school in the run up to Christmas' is quite apt!

Nativity Rehearsals - Hall use

As the performances are fast approaching, here are the times that EYFS & Year 1 need access to the hall:

Monday:	10.00 - 11.00am
Tuesday:	9.30 - 11.00am
