

The week ahead...

Spring 1 Week 3: w/c 16th January 2023

Good morning,

Well done for getting to Friday in what has been a pretty wet and miserable week. As always, it's been a busy but a good one and it certainly feels like the children have come back refreshed and ready to go after the weekend. Paula said to send her love to all of you for attending the service on Tuesday. In her words, "I've no words for the love I felt from all of you, it was like an army coming through the gate." It's times like this when our team shines and this is what makes our school so special - we hear it so often from other people who come through the door and we feel it in the school!

Tea Money

Please could you ensure you give or send your tea money over to Lorna ASAP for this term. Many thanks.

Song of the week

It seems fitting that we have Paula's song as song of the week this week. At this difficult time, she has really appreciated the love everyone has shown to her and her family. Her song 'You've got the love' by The Source ft. Candi Stanton is most definitely apt and she will certainly receive a lot of love and support when she returns next week!

Learning Walk

This takes place as part of our staff meeting on Wednesday 25th January. When you are looking at your classroom, please consider whether you are able to read things on your wall from all areas of your classroom. Visibility will be a key focus!

*Have a wonderful weekend!
Paul, Alison and Rachel*
