

THE WEEKLY BULLETIN

IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR THE WEEK AHEAD

DATE: FRIDAY 19TH JANUARY 2024

Good morning,

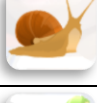

A very chilly second half week has flown by this week and the children, once again, have been fantastic. They've truly impressed us with their hard-working attitudes and it has been wonderful to see them flourishing in the different subjects.

The bulletin for this week now includes dates for Spring 2, which will give you advance notice of the different events coming up. Please add these to your calendar and we will provide more detail about them closer to the dates.

A little reminder to all parents to put your child's name in their jumpers and other items of clothing that they bring to school. It's very hard trying to locate a lost item of clothing if it doesn't have their name on it, so please take the time to label them all this weekend. I can guarantee it will be the first thing you'll be asked if you speak to any teacher about lost items.

And finally, the parent tour for this half term takes place next Friday (26th January). This really is a wonderful way of seeing what school is like on a typical Friday. Please look out for the text message or call the office to secure your place. I look forward to seeing some new faces next week!
